

“The Driving School Association of the Americas, Inc”

Certificate of Membership

This is to certify that

JMP Driving School

In the year of 2011

has pledged to uphold the ethics of the Driving School Association of the Americas, Inc. and has further pledged to maintain standards above those set by local, state and federal governments. This school can be patronized with confidence, since its policy is to offer to the public the most advanced and comprehensive safety education and driver training program available. All instructions are presented by professional, licensed and certified instructors and/or other specially trained and qualified personnel.
